STAYING THE COURSE

Financial Advisors recommend building your portfolio’s by looking at your long-term strategy. Build a well-diversified portfolio tailored to your appetite for risk as well as personal financial goals and objectives to create the peace of mind needed to “stay the course” on your retirement path.

UNC System retirement vendors (Fidelity and TIAA) have Financial Consultants ready to assist employees with navigating their current financial needs and future financial retirement goals via virtual or telephonic meetings. Employees are encouraged to reach out to discuss financial goals, objectives, and special needs which may help achieve their financial retirement future.

REMEMBER: The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act was signed into law by the President on March 27, and provides options for special loan and distribution options for retirement plan participants to consider as you navigate financial decisions in the coming months. To learn more about the CARES Act provisions adopted by the University System, please read the Cares Act Impact on UNC Retirement Plans letter – also available on the UNC System website. Employees are encouraged to contact their carrier directly online or by phone:

Retirement Fund Change

As a result of a recent review, the UNC System has decided to make some changes to the UNC System Optional Retirement Plan (ORP) and the UNC System 403(b) and 457(b) Plans. As part of ongoing efforts to provide participants with best in class funds at a lower cost, the share classes of various investment options currently offered under the plans will change, beginning July 22, 2020. The new share class will offer participants the same investment strategy and risk, but the overall expenses will be lower. Read more about these changes in the UNC Fund Change Notice (07/2020), also located on the UNC System Benefits – ORP website.
SECURE YOUR FUTURE
(Cybercrooks Target Retirement Accounts)

Cybersecurity has become an increasing concern in today’s growing digital economy. Hackers continue to search for avenues and vulnerabilities via online platforms to access investment accounts and deplete your future financial savings. Don’t become a victim to fraudulent activity – start taking steps to protect your accounts today!

Hackers are ramping up attacks on retirement accounts – keep your accounts safe with these simple measures

1. Don’t Fall For It – Look out for emails, text and calls with phishing characteristics
2. Maintain current antivirus and antispyware software as well as install a firewall to protect your devices
3. Increase security with strong passwords and usernames
4. Set up multi-factor authentication on all accounts

REMINDER: Review and Update Your Account and Beneficiary(ies) Regularly

When was the last time you checked your retirement or supplemental retirement account to verify listed beneficiary(ies), ensure your personal information is up-to-date, or review your account(s) performance? As life changes, you may have to update this information as well.

Take time each month to check your account(s) performance, review and update all personal information, as well as updating your beneficiary(ies) named on your plan, if applicable.

Confirming or updating your account information is as simple as logging in to your on-line retirement account.

Don’t delay! Take action today and confirm your retirement account is up to date. Stay in control of your account(s).

Establishing a Financial Safety Net

Having a financial safety net in place can help protect you when a financial emergency arises. Having a cash reserve, a pool of readily available funds that can help you meet emergency or highly urgent short-term needs, can help you create that financial safety net. While building your cash reserve consider - how much is enough; where should you keep your cash reserve; and ensure you review your cash reserve periodically.

Check out this article from CAPTRUST to learn more about establishing your financial safety net.

Savings Strategies for the Future

No matter what stage of life you are in, the plan is one day to retire; you will want to be prepared when that day arrives. Make smart financial choices now to help you best prepare for the future. TIAA shares three key savings strategies to maximize your future financial wealth:

- Start saving early to take advantage of compounding interest
- Take advantage of savings with tax benefits through your employer supplemental retirement plans
- Save as much as you can, at least 10-20% of your gross salary

3 Keys to Your Retirement

Your unique retirement needs and dreams will determine the amount of income you will need in retirement. In turn, there isn’t a one-size-fits-all retirement plan that can meet everyone’s retirement income needs. Fidelity shares in this article three key takeaways to build your retirement income plan:

- A retirement income plan should include guaranteed income, growth potential, and flexibility
- Prepare for life’s eventual curveballs with a retirement plan that combines income from multiple sources
- Consider working with a financial advisor

Various retirement readiness resources and tools will be provided each month to help you learn more about how to live a financially well life, save more toward a comfortable retirement future, and gain additional knowledge on many other key retirement topics (Social Security, Medicare, etc.). We encourage you to take advantage of all available resources.

Boost Your Retirement Savings

Whether you’re just starting out on your career path or nearly done, you can still potentially grow your retirement nest egg.

Key Points To Remember:
- It’s never too early – or too late – to start saving for retirement
- If you are just starting out, focus on saving as much as you can
- If you are nearing retirement, consider increasing contributions to your savings by taking advantage of the 50 or older catch-up option
